

Nudity and other vulgarities serve no purpose as entertainment. In today's world minor children are viewing television into the late hours of the day/evening and I think it essential to shield these children from seeing and hearing things they do not normally encounter.