

I feel that the rules for the allowance of F-bombs and female promiscuity on Television should stay the same, they shouldn't be changed or relaxed on. So many families watch primetime television. We shouldn't allow this kind of thing within our homes, on daily channels. If people want that, they need to go pay for it elsewhere, not just be handed it for free.