

I have noticed a lapse in the standard of keeping profanity off of daytime and primetime television programming. There is also been an increase in sexual innuendos, skimpy outfits, and scenes involving or implying sexual acts. Please keep all of this off of daytime/primetime tv. That's what the premium cable channels (ie HBO, Showtime, Cinemax, etc) are for. Let the people who really want that pay extra for it. And keep the other channels kid and family friendly.
