

Please stop the partial nudity, profanity and sexual innuendo from our primetime television. The demoralization of our society is caused by lack of concern for good family values that plagues our airways. Our children become desensitized to the very things in life we want to protect them from. It is ridiculous. Free speech has gone too far"!