

Nudity and swearing are not okay and its not only egregious repeat offenders that should be held accountable. My family doesn't want to see that on TV, and although we try and watch shows where those things do not appear I am concerned if the broadcasters aren't held accountable that the result will be more swearing and nudity on all shows.