

Nudity, profanity and obscenity have no place and no reason to be broadcast on public broadcast television. Current societal standards of decency have fallen low enough without adding the lowering of the public broadcast standards as well. Maintain the current standards in the best interest of our culture and society.