

The new rules you are about to put in place allows for great indecency to be broadcast across the airways of the American people. You have already lowered the standards to hear about things like anal intercourse (two broke girls). It is time that you tightened up what can be shown, not loosened.