

To not enforce indecency requirements on broadcast television is a serious disservice to the many American citizens and families who DO NOT want filthy words and content streamed into their homes. Its not free speech - its offensive.