

I am writing to plead with you not to lower the standards of language and nudity which are allowed on TV/radio even during hours children may be watching/listening.

Rather I would encourage you to pass higher standards of decency which would remove the offensive language and graphic scenes already allowed. Let's clean it up and make America a nation of high standards that citizens can be proud of.

Thank you.