

Our children deserve their childhood...please keep the standard level where it is, to lower it so that profanity and nudity can be included is to lower our standards and environment for our children.