

I oppose any changes in the fcc standards of indecency or that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."