

I am petitioning the FCC to relax the indecency standards for broadcast radio & television and allow for full nudity and so-called expletives at all times. The limitations which the FCC has placed on broadcasters are arbitrary, old-fashioned, easily circumvented in most cases, and most importantly are no longer relevant for 99% of all US broadcast media with the advent of cable and the internet.