

Please dont relax your past decency standards. Please dont allow for the F word and nudity on tv where our children will witness that. Its hard enough to raise a child and this could even endanger them as they become less and less self guarding.