

Please do not lower your regulations for the FCC indecency standards. I am against any changes to what they are and would like you to strictly enforce them. Relaxing the current standards would only be detrimental to all of our children and to our nation as a whole. Thank you for listening to my request.