

I am totally against any inappropriate language such as F-bombs and certainly any type of nudity front or back on Primr time TV. There are certainly many other opprtunities in this world for those that want to views these types of activities other than Prime time TV. It is unacceptable for a child to introduced to this crap.