

I am disappointed with the FCC for suggesting to no censor nudity and profanity. I have stopped watching TV because of the crudity on TV. I will only watch Hallmark shows and I have noticed a change in those shown - allowing swearing in them. I guess I'll soon just stop watching TV. We have "Clearplay" to screen most movies. I guess we'll have to trash our TV's if decency doesn't make a comeback. Where are Ozzie and Harriett? If people want those kind of shows have them pay for them on "pay for view"
