

FCC,

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting." I can't believe you are even considering this! How much lower can we go as Americans? Americans are becoming so desensitized to language, violence, and nudity that we are now dealing with mass murders and pornography to the point that we have children murdering other children, children being used as sexual slaves, and teens sexting. Each of you should be ashamed for even thinking about this, but then, you have apparently become so desensitized to the point that you think anything goes, no matter who it may hurt.
