

PLEASE! We do need to maintain some semblance of decency in our nation and in our media, not only for our minor children, but also for our youth, and we, as adults. This should definitely not be allowed to take place in prime time to assault our ears, our eyes, and our senses. We do not want this sort of degradation on our airwaves in any form! Thank you.