

I strongly object to allowing this language and nudity on TV. There is already too much being shown. Our young people and sexually troubled persons are learning to believe this is a proper way to live and than they emulate this anti-social behavior.

Many times we just have to turn the TV off because there is nothing decent or entertaining to watch. I would rather request that you disallow most of the sexual content already shown and eliminate all profanity from the airwaves.