

Please don't allow the absurd, vulgar, and unnecessary language be aired on our network television and radio! We can express ourselves perfectly fine with proper words. Not only do I myself not want to hear such language but my children surely don't need to hear it! Allowing more nudity on television is even more absurd! We need to show our children morals, decency and have respect for ourselves.