

I sincerely hope the FCC doesn't relax the current codes for some decency in our society. Isn't it crude enough now without encouraging more foul language, nudity and trash for our children to watch on television??? Decency and some culture needs to be restored not further destroyed.