

I oppose any changes to current FCC indecency standards that allow TV and radio to broadcast expletives and nudity on public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting".