

I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity, however brief, on the public airwaves or any other mode. Relaxing the current policy would be a disservice to the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals relaxing the current nudity and expletive standards.