

I am strongly against the FCC dropping the ban on f-word, nudity on television and radio stations.

At a time when our kids need more of our help in making good decisions, we need to fight to keep their minds fed with uplifting and positive material.

Please fight to ban more filth from the airwaves, not less.

Justin

Roseville, CA