

I strongly oppose any changes to the FCC standards that would allow any form of indecency on tv or radio especially at a time which would be exposed to children.