

I feel that bad language and female nudity should not be acceptable on television. I want to protect my children from such things, and it is much more difficult if it is present in television shows. I feel that if people want to see that, they should go elsewhere. I will not watch television shows where these components are present, and I know that many people agree.