

I oppose any changes or relaxing of the current FCC standards. Relaxing the current policies would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject any proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives or nudity on FCC licensed stations.