

I do not agree with changing the FCC's indecency standards to allow radio and TV stations to broadcast nudity or expletives. Even if these images or expressions are brief or fleeting. Please reject any and all proposals to change those indecency standards.