

Please do not allow profanity and nudity on our television programs. There is entirely too much violence and sex on our program now. Our children have no role models with morals or integrity. For this reason, we watch very little network programs.