

I am writing to file a complaint against your intention to relax your indecency standards and allow expletives and nudity on prime time TV when children are likely to be watching. This is NOT in the best interest of the public! There is already plenty of trash on TV to corrupt young minds. If anything, your efforts should be in the opposite direction.