

I strongly disagree with allowing profanity and nudity on television and radio, especially during times children are watching. How does profane language and nudity improve the viewing/listening experience? It doesn't! If this comes to pass, my family and I will cancel our satellite subscription, lose the converter box, and resort to wholesome family DVDs! Please understand that not everyone enjoys the vulgarity that some consider entertainment. Thank you.