

Please do not lower the language standard. The F word is repulsive and the public does not need anymore sexual innuendos. I refuse to watch a show with those words. It is offensive and demonstrates the inability to communicate in civil language. Language should lift and inspire to be better, not crude and offensive.