

Rules and regulations that control the use of offensive language and nudity on regular TV should be enforced. It is a shame that the same rules of decency are not required for Cable. Whoever said, "TV is the great American wasteland " was very insightful.