

I support the changes proposed in GN Docket No. 13-86 which would change the current FCC indecency standards and would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves. Our government has better things to do with our tax money than to enforce silly taboos on the nation's communications media.