

I strongly disagree with the idea of abandoning standards in the media - TV and radio. Our current culture has become immoral, and the immorality is strongly damaging our people and our society - both young and adult. One of the strong contributions to this cultural situations is the media focusing on nudity. Relaxing the current policy does not serve public stability. Please don?t make it easier for them to focus on and promote immorality.