

Do NOT change the existing procedure that restricts the "F" and "S" words and female frontal nudity from TV programs.

What's the point. Why do we need more vulgar and immoral content on TV??? That would be reaching a new LOW in establishing program content.

Think about this: Would you use those words when talking to your mother or show her pictures of ladies with their breasts exposed? If you are civilized, you'd say NO.