

I am very much opposed in relaxing the rules regarding profanity. Profuse profanity has already proliferated society and will only contribute to the moral decline of this nation.