

I do not support relaxing TV decency standards. We must prioritize the safety and education of our children.