

I am horrified at the thought that my children and grandchildren would be watch TV and have frontal nudity and foul language coming out of the screen at them. What would that be teaching our young people? I don't want my little ones mimicing the F word the S word or other offensive and disrespectful idioms or being stimulated by nudity that is far beyond their developmental years. Have we no decency and respect for each other left in this country at all? Dr. Kara Cross