

As a mother of young children, I am pleading with you to not relax the standards of the ratings. In a world where there is so much crime, hatred, and immorality, I am trying to teach my children to be good citizens, to be honest, clean and moral. The last thing they need to see is nudity and violence. They don't need to hear swear words. I don't appreciate these things, either. If anything, the things seen and heard on television need to be cleaned up a bit. If ratings are more relaxed, we will turn our television off and stick to DVDs that we know are clean. Thank you for your consideration.
