

My name is Samuel Green and I STRONGLY oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting." I don't have kids yet, but I never want them to be exposed to this in the future. It is irresponsible, irreverent, and disrespectful to the young people of this nation.

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening. I believe that relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.

If we allow this action to go forward, then I will be ashamed to be an American, saddened that my children will be exposed to such filth, and enraged that we as a people did not stand up against it and stop it.
