

I am totally opposed to the proposed changes namely using the F word and full frontal nudity. In my opinion, there is no need for such explicit things to be on family television. If people want to expose themselves and their families to such things, let them go to the theater to do so. Frankly, we do not need these things in our homes, a place of refuge from the world.