

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please do not allow television and radio stations to air nudity, no matter how minimal or brief a time, or cursing, especially taking the LORD'S name in vain. The LORD's name is all holy and to be treated with great reverence and respect. Nudity for no serious reason would go against natural modesty which all people have an inclination to. The body is sacred and not to be profaned. Swearing is commonly frowned upon because it is an abuse of the gift of speech.

I respectfully urge you to not to allow above-mentioned things on the air, whether television or radio. It not is in the public's interest or benefit.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Daniel Canadeo
