

I strongly oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow an increase in allowable expletives or nudity.

The public will not be better served by making nudity and expletives available in their homes and cars through FCC-licensed stations. Those who choose this kind of information and entertainment can certainly find it elsewhere. Those of us who wish to "keep it clean" are finding fewer places where this occurs as things stand.