

There needs to be NO nudity, F-words, or sexually explicit content on public television AT ALL. We should not be loosening the rules. TV violence, swearing, and sex has already led to enough messed up kids. If viewers want to watch things like that, they can rent movies but please do not put it on TVs and increase the likely hood of children growing up too quickly. Thank you.