

I am filing this complaint because the show American Dad - which is a cartoon marketed toward kids - is completely disgusting, especially the episode aired on April 14, 2013. As a parent, I urge you NOT to change the rules regarding indecency on TV. This episode is a perfect example of how lax the broadcast rules already are. The FOX affiliates who broadcast this highly offensive show should be subject to indecency fines. PLEASE help us parents protect our kids from indecency on TV!!! Don't make the rules even more lax!!
