

I am pleading with you on behalf of my young family not to relax the current indecency standards. If anything, they need to be stricter and more strongly enforced. Letting violators off to clear a backlog is ridiculous. Your duty is to do what is the most beneficial to our society. Your proposed changes will degrade people and women in particular. We do need more of that. I oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting."

The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity, especially during times when children are likely to be watching or listening.

Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest and I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.
