

Please do not consider being more lenient with foul language and nudity on the air waves. We really need to protect our families from this type of filth. Please consider making the laws more strict and the penalties much greater. Thank you.