

We must uphold a moral compass that embraces respect for our families and children not drop all media decency. Political correctness need to be replaced with moral compass.