

I would like to add my voice against the proposed policy of permitting more inappropriate material to cross our airwaves. Not only is it a negative effect for our children, it is also uncomfortable and unpleasant for most adults. I hope enough people will speak up rather than let apathy be their vote. This new policy is not appropriate for a civilized country.